LEARNING TOGETHER

WITH UNISON IN SOCIAL CARE

UNISON College

WHAT'S ON OFFER?

Did you know that your union offers learning to help you with your personal and career development? UNISON College has a wide range of courses for all our members, and this autumn we're running a series of webinars for staff in social care.

IN PERSON

Why not speak with your union learning representative (ULR) and/or organiser to find out more information about UNISON's learning offer?

Or check out the website for more information.

ONLINE

We offer courses on Data protection and GDPR awareness, Dementia Awareness, Introduction to the Care Certificate and Understanding Autism Certification.

Social Care Webinar Series: We have put together a series of free webinars covering a range of topics for 2025. It could form part of your own career development in social care. To register, use the QR code or view our events page at https://learning.unison.org.uk/events/.
